

>NearDesk

NearDesk is a flexible working card

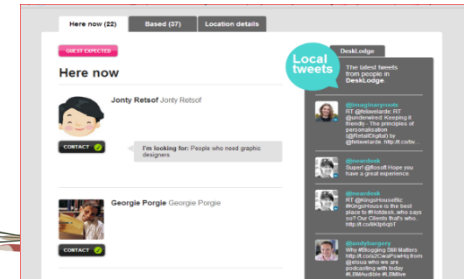

- NearDesk is a flexible working card that lets users rent desk space and meeting rooms by the hour
- Touch in – Touch out technology , only pay for the time used.
- Access to a growing network of business centre work spaces across the UK
 - Currently 150 locations and we are actively acquiring new sites each week
- A productive alternative to working at home or in a coffee shop

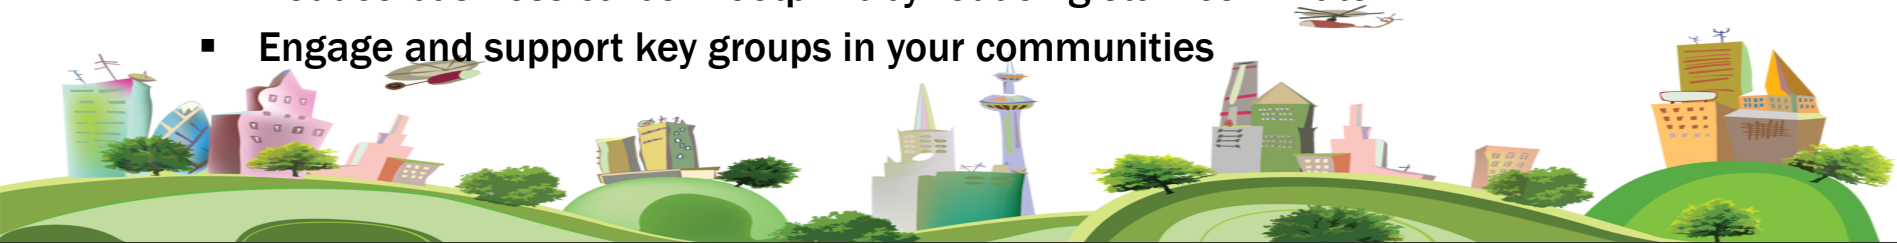

Employees benefit from flexibility and productivity

- Access to a productive work space near to home or whilst on the move
- Not tied to one location, but can work or arrange meetings in a variety of sites
- Simple alternative to the distraction and loneliness of working from home
- Can reduce frequency and cost of commuting
 - Improve work life balance by reducing commuting time
- Social software lets colleagues connect within venue

Employers can meet a number of challenges

- HR / Talent
 - Attract and retain the best talent. Offers benefit to staff beyond salary
 - Reduce employee relocation costs and broaden talent catchment areas
 - Deliver flexible working whilst maintaining and growing productivity
- Finance
 - Reduce real-estate costs. Efficiently process, manage and control expenses
- Facilities
 - Reduce costs by monetising spare space. Efficiently support changing demand
- CSR
 - Reduce business carbon footprint by reducing staff commute
 - Engage and support key groups in your communities

Branded Card Examples

