

Mark Goodman

Market and Coastal Towns Association

The Role and Contribution of the MCTA to the Local Development Framework and Community Planning

Why are we interested?

- Community Planning
 - Tied in so closely
- Local Development Framework
 - Projects
 - The Vision
 - The Economy
- Engaging with New Towns
- Engaging Existing Towns

The Role and Contribution of the MCTA to the Local Development Framework and Community Planning

Adding Value

- Recognition
- Structured Engagement
- Consistency
- The Regional Dimension
- Lessons from the Region
- Engaging with Partners
- Engaging help

Involving Communities in Planning

Aims of the day

- Learn about the legislative context
- Learn about others' experiences
- Learn about engagement possibilities

- A list of the actions that reflect the Planners needs and limitations

- A list of actions that address the requirements of the Communities

- Jeff Bishop BDOR Ltd. 'Unlocking the Potential in Planning'
- A Community View: David Brown from the High Bickington 2000 project and Community Property Trust
- A Planners View: Barry Pearce Senior Planning Advisor with Planning Aid South West
- Caroline Rae on behalf of the Devon Strategic Partnership
- Lynn McElheron for a Local Strategic Partnership
- Workshops / Plenary